Instructor Bio: I have been working with stained glass since 2011. I was an elementary school teacher for 30 years. While I was still working full time, I made stained glass to give to friends and family as gifts. After retiring, AND being confined to the house due to the virus, I decided to try out an Etsy shop! So, I started to read and learn about the process while also building my inventory.

Many things inspire me. It can be nature, some beautifully colored glass that makes me think of something or even the shape of the frame gives me ideas. My goal is to continue to create and experiment with new ideas.
