Class Description: This class will introduce students to the fascinating, and somewhat addictive, technique of Iris Paper Folding, including the historic origins. Each person will leave with two completed, all occasion cards. While the basic design will be the same on each card, students will have ample opportunity to customize and express their individualism through using a wide selection of origami papers, florist foil, and embellishments all provided by the instructor. Join us in a fun, relaxed atmosphere while creating your very own, personalized, greeting cards.

Instructors: Pauline Powell has experimented with many art forms including, painting with oils, watercolors, pastels and acrylics. In addition, she has created custom children's clothes, window treatments and soft furnishings. More recently, Pauline has discovered the joy of handcrafted cards, especially using Iris Paper Folding.
